PRACTICAL TRAINING IS EMPHASIZED FOR GIRLS IN HOME SERVICE SCHOOL

There is a real demand for skilled household workers. Training of this service is provided in the Dominion Provincial Youth Training Home Service School in Calgary.

The importance of training for household work cannot be stressed too much as efficient domestic workers are required and always in demand at good wages. Thirty-five young women received certificates of competency at the conclusion of the training period recently, and now there is room for more. This residential school gives an intensive course in all phases of domestic work in the home, special attention being paid to the theory and practice of cooking.

The course requires three months to complete and tuition is free to suitable applicants. Girls living in urban centres, within 16-30 years of age and unemployed, and interested in the work of this school are invited to

RED CROSS CARNIVAL HUGE SUCCESS

(by the secretary-treasurer)

The St. Valentine's carnival under the auspices of the local branch of the Canadian Red Cross was held at the Irma rink on Wednesday evening, February 14. The attendance in spite of the snow, was close to 400 people. Nearly 50 persons including children were in costume which added color to the evening. The rink was decorated with Red Cross pennants, a huge red cross being painted in the centre of the ice sheet, with an illuminated figure of a red cross suspended from the electric wires overhead.

Judging of fancy dress got under way at 9 p.m. with awards as under noted, the personnel of the judges being Mrs. M. McMillan, Mrs. Lina Meyer, Mr. A. E. Foxwell of Irma and Mr. Croteau of Jarrov.

Among the contestants were the country doctor, Billy Mardene; Robin Hood, Bob Wilbraham; clown, Ross McFarland Jr.; Italian balloon seller, Jack McKay; clown Carl Sonetti; Chinese laundry man, Ernie Carter; Jean Edford, Red Cross nurse; Audrey Jones, valetine; Scotch lassie, Betty McLean and Dorothy Currie; the fish, Henry Kasten; the Thin Man, Marion Longmire; front and back pair, Lois Longmire and Solveig Steffenson; Irma Times, Susie McKay; Red Cross nurse, Vera Simmerman; night and day, Mrs. Anquist and Marie Webster; cowboy, Jack Fletcher Jr.; Indian squaw, Sheila Bishop and Kathleen Jones; Order of the Bath, Olive Jack; the two ghosts, Francis Bares and T. Paterson; pilot and stewardess, Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Fletcher; American gob, Bob Smith; king, Ray Locke, and many others which we regret we cannot remember as no entries were recorded.

Special mention should be made of Mrs. Smallwood's entry, dressed as an old Irish woman, she had a very realistic time in getting her pig to market in spite of the shillash which she used so tenderly on her market produce. Also to Clifford Jones, dressed as an old man who was the fun of the evening, to Harold Larson as Knight of the Bath, a borrowed hotel bath towel made up the most of this attire, and many a young lady got the cold shoulder that evening.

Next on the program was the pee wee hockey game, boys vs. girls. Every effort was made to have Foster Hewett call the game play by play, but owing to circumstances beyond the control of the committee we were unable to get the services of this commentator.

The committee in charge of the races were Stan Brown and Ray Martin. Money prizes were awarded from a nickel up to one buck.

The Red Cross executive wish to thank one and all who by their attendance, efforts and donations, made this evening such a success.

With a few petty amounts yet to be paid out of the total receipts at the time of going to press the net amount of receipts is $70.10.

Fee Wee Hockey

This long looked for game at last a reality.

The budding National Hockey League players came out on the arena cheer from the side lines all decided out in the Irma senior league colors of green and white. The young ladies of the village in the colors of the junior inmates of yellow and green. This was a picked team from the high and public schools with Cadet Allison Carter of the Irma Legion Signal Corps blowing the whistle as the game got under way. Back and forth surged the mighty pee wees, with the ladies lustily kidding the troops. Edna Arnold was doing her stuff between the posts as Turk Arnold. The score was 0-0 at half time.

Puffed and powdered the ladies made their appearance first as time was called for the last half. Away went the game hammer and tongs, the first casualty being Dorothy Currie when she got half a stick poked in her left eye (reports are that the stick had been retrieved). Then came the power play of the mighty pee wees, down came the two burly defense men, Wilbraham and McKay. Wilbraham to McKay, McKay aims and fires, and scores. The roar from the crowd was heard clear to Hawk-Ins.

Downhearted but not discouraged the ladies put over more after wave of mighty plays but goalkeeper Ernie Carter kept the game one up for the Men.

One minute to go, the dark horse came into being. Striking down the left boards came the double of Mr. Thornton (Mr. Percy Jones' father-in-law) in the person of Cliff Jones. He was the first to break and score, that goal did not count. And the pee wees won their first game of the season.

Hot Dog Stand

Come and get it, get your hotdogs. Thus came the chant of the head chef of the refreshment stand which was erected near the sheet of ice. Yes, these passionate puppies, piping hot, pass the mustard please, two coffees please—kept the cash register ringing. Just think, ladies and gentlemen, these sausage sandwiches were on the royal menu when our gracious King and Queen visited our American cousins last June.

C.B.C. Music by Faith

Ring through the frosty air on this eventful night came the sweet refrain "Nights of Gladness." Yes, folks, the music and announcements came from the portable address system of our genial parish priest, the Rev. J. E. McGrane, with two loud speakers mounted on top of the rink shack, the shack itself being an improvised studio, recording of music and announcements were put on the air. Able assisting in this end of the arrangements was Johnny McLean.

Speed Skating

Old and young, rich and poor entered the marathon. Members of the Irma Legion Signal Cadet Corps ably assisted as markers for these races.

Girls, 8 to 10-1, Lois Paterson; 2, Alfreda Fenton.

Girls 10 to 12-1, Vera Martin; 2, Jean Edford; 3, Olive Jack.

Girls 12 to 14-1, Marjorie Webster; 2, Vera Martin.

Girls 14 to 16-1, Edna Arnold; 2, Ada Currie.

Girls 8 and under-1, Lois Paterson; 2, Elvred Fenton.

Boys 8 to 10-1, Jimmie Guitner; 2, Don Simmerman.

Boys 10 to 12-1, Clark Figgins; 2, George Miles.

Boys 12 to 14-1, Fred Meyer; 2, Ross McFarland.

Boys 14 to 16-1, Jim Sonoff; 2, Max Webster.

Open event-1, Albert Sonoff; 2, Bob Smith.

These races were full of thrills and the prize winners were the "survival of the fittest."

Smiling sweetly at Mrs. Batchelor, Bob Smallwood trying to start an argument on politics, Mayor Hedley feeding his dog with the bun from a hot dog, Oscar Steffenson sipping a cup of coffee near the booth, Bob Simmerman, the village cop, very busy doing this beat, Julius Stougard giving the glad eye to a school marm, Mr. Simmonds rooting for the pee wee hockey team, Ross McFarland Jr. passing the mustard in the booth, Mrs. Ina Knudsen lifting a little gaffer so he could see the game, Don Foxwell blowing his nose, Gene Carter helping the gate attendant, Bobbie Wilbraham boning his dad for a dime, Dr. Greenberg shelling out nickels as prizes to the kiddies, Billy Milburn lighting his pipe on a borrowed match, Alf Burton telling the bunch Broom Ball.

Like politics being an old mans game.

The Never Weres vs. the Has Beens.

Agreed by captains and umpire hockey rules go, no holds barred, equipped with the wife's kitchen broom and Ross McFarland's rugby ball the game got under way. Biff, biff, grun's galore. Back to back, this war of nerves and shifts made the crowd roar with laughter. Carl Sonoff lost his hat, but the game went on. The steamrolled Ray Martin and fancy-finished Charlie Milne kept the burly defense of the Has Beens busy. The score at the half time was 0-0.

Last half change ends. The Has Beens forcing the play every man up, gave the Never Weres a true picture of their title but down came long Ray Lock, weaving feinting, broke up the Has Beens' defense and put the pig skin past goals Mayor Hedley to make it one up for the Never Weres.

Two minutes to go, Old Man Sharkey discarding his broom, booted the ball over the east fence of the rink which called for a penalty shot, being taken by captain Lina Meyer. Merle Knudsen, reassured by the hockey, saved on this penalty shot, which ended this "scientific sport at its best."

The World of Wheat

H. G. L. Strange

The late Lord Tweedsmuir seemed to be in many ways an embodiment of the Plato's idealistic "Philosopher King." Lord Tweedsmuir was not a King, but he was the representative of a King. He did not rule, but he exerted a strong influence for good upon those who did rule. He was a philosopher, an historian, a deep thinker and a learned man. His mind was profound, his thoughts were noble and his expression of these thoughts both in speech and in writing was logical, clear, simple and concise. He illuminated, simplified and brought to life any subject he pondered on. Canada lost a great man, a sincere humanitarian.

Lord Tweedsmuir's sympathetic nature, and his keen interest in the welfare of western farmers, was revealed when he was elected, as a result of his observations of life on the prairies, that lonely farming families needed more books to read. Out of his long experience with literature and books Lord Tweedsmuir made certain definite and most practical suggestions to various organizations, and those suggestions finally resulted in the forming of the "Lady Tweedsmuir Libraries," and the "Grain Trade Libraries." These two organizations working together, have made libraries of books available to farming families at hundreds of points over the prairies.

"Remember I told you last fall I had a lot of coarse grains and didn't want to sell because prices were so low? Well, sir, I went to the Bank of Montreal and got a loan for $36, bought nine young pigs, fed them the coarse grains, and this spring sold them at a nice profit. Yes, and the Bank's paid back. Hockey Notes

A great hockey contest took place on the Irma rink Friday afternoon, February 16th when the Irma and Alma Mater pee wee teams met. The teams were fairly well matched with possibly the visitors having the best of the play. They appeared to have had more practice and as a result they scored one goal while holding the Irma boys scoreless.

Ted Alma Mater goalie, who we are told, tends goal for some of the older teams at times, had several shots to stop when the Irma players rushed through.

Several times the Irma kids got through to the goal but failed to score. Irma was weak on team work, but they all had a good time and so did the spectators. It worth the admission to see goalie E. Carter do the belly-flop on the puck when it came dangerously near the goal. The one goal was scored by E. Fignishaw assisted by W. Guy.

Alma Mater—Hardy (C. Glover, E. Fignishaw, H. Dunbar, J. King, J. Dunbar, O. Meyer, S. Patterson, W. Guy, K. Guy, C. Fignishaw and one girl, Lois Patterson.

Irma—E. Carter, R. Witherham, C. Sonoff, J. Guitner, J. McKay, A. Pierce, J. Fisher, G. Miles, W. Fyfe, W. Marden and D. Simmermon. Referee, E. Sharkey.

On Saturday afternoon, February 17, the Irma juniors took on a team from Alma Mater which they trimmed 4-3. It was a real good game for so many people to miss. During the first period Irma scored twice. A. Carveydon A. Sonoff, and C. Jones and A. Sonoff from W. Latner. P. Meyer scored one in the second half for Alma Mater, followed by two more in the last period by A. Glasgow. W. Latner and A. Sonoff each scored one in the second period and so ended the struggle.

Alma Mater—Jinlin, Patterson, Glover, Smallwood, Goodwin, Whiteley, Meyer, P. Inkin, Lukens Larson. Irma—Carter, Simmermon, Guitner, Jones, A. Carter, A. Sonoff, Latner, McKay, J. Sonoff, McMillan and Knudson.

The Irma pee wees motored out to the Albert rink last Monday afternoon and lost to that team 2-0. The Irma kids haven't done much at winning this season but watch their smoke next winter.

It was prophesied in an issue of the Times recently that there would be a different story to tell when the Irma juniors met the Orindale team in a return game in Irma. Now there is. According to arrangements these two teams tangled sticks in Irma on Tuesday with the result that the Irma boys scored seven goals, eyes aint four for their guests. The game was fast and good all the way and the ice was in fine condition. Irma started the scoring early in the first period counting two, both by R. Simmermon. Orindale secured two in the second, the first by Parson and the second by Meyer. Irma added four more, Latner scoring twice, Jones one and Knudson one. In the third period the score was run still higher. Latner and Carter working together accounted for two, Latner alone two, and one by McKay after a nice play all by himself. F. Meyer got another one for the visitors, followed by one by Goodwin before the finish. Altogether it was an interesting game to watch and well worth the price paid to see it.

The attendance at this game was the best for the season. Orindale—G. Meyer, Prior, Glover, Fred Meyer, Francis Meyer, R. Whiteley, Goodwin, Parsons, L. Parsons, H. Parson, Keller.

Irma—Carter, Jones, Simmermon, Guitner, Congdon, A. Carter, Latner, A. Sonoff, J. Sonoff, McKay, McMillan, Knudson.

Referee, R. Smith.

On February 15 the Hardy team came over to play a return game and were successful in defeating the Irma squad by a score of 5-4 after a real contest. This was the first loss the Irma boys experienced on home ice in four years.

The elimination games in the Gas Line league are being played now. Vikin won from Wainwright in two straight and now Vikin plays Irma two games this week, at Irma on Thursday and at Vikin at Saturday.

The Irma midgets went to Wainwright last Tuesday afternoon and played a wonderful game to shut out the Wainwright team 7-0.

The provincial championships in table tennis took place in Calgary at the end of last week. The fact that 25 of the Edmonton experts journeyed to the southern city to participate, indicates the enthusiasm. Reports of the games showed a high standard of play, particular attention being directed to the "attacking style" of the junior players from the capital city. This is a worthy of note, for by purely "defensive play" the former provincial champion copied the honors a year ago. The results of the tournament brought about equal honors to the north and south in the province.

It may have been that Eddie Wenstoch was half sick when he met the "Tiger" Jack Fox of Spokane in Vancouver, Feb. 27, 9 to 12 o'clock; at Jarow 12 to 1; and at Kinisla, 1 to 2. Pisciella and Ross Mac spent the week-end in the city. Mrs. R. E. Westbrook returned on Thursday after visiting at Bruce and Edmonton. The annual meeting of the Phillips school was held Monday evening, Mrs. J. Heslop being re-elected for trustee. The present party government is preferable to a union administration as existed during the previous war. Under the latter, Liberals and Conservatives were united on the government side while on the other could only be found the malcontents, which condemned every move of the government, thus endangering national unity when most needed.—E. Stuart McDougall, K.C.

Viking has a very active badminton club which ought to compare favorably with any in the province. A special feature is the method used to insure rotation of play among all the players, assuring equal time on the floor and the meeting of skilled opponents. This scheme operating for a certain period each night of play is a bright idea and might well be copied by other clubs.

On Monday night the contest between Wainwright and Viking developed enough heat to bring warm weather to the local rink. The fans saw plenty of action with hips doing the hula-hula wiggles sending opponents into the boards head-on; sticks flying high; black eyes; chipped teeth; and when the real fracas came, where the spectators entered the ring along with the players, even some hair-pulling by the females.
